D. A. R. CELEBRATION WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY

ABIGAIL BARTHOLOMEW CHAP-TER ENTERTAINED PLEAS-ANTLY WITH A COLONIAL TEA
IN PALMETTO CLUB HOUSE.

The Daughters of the American Revolution celebrated most pleasantly Washington's birthday by a colonial tea given at the Palmetto club house on Orange avenue. Some of the members of the chapter appeared in colonial costume, and all wore the national colors. The room was tastefully decorated with greens, flags and a copy of one of the noted portraits of George Washington.

The regent, Mrs. Alexander T. Bigelow, headed the receiving line, assisted by the vice-regent, Mrs. Charles M. Raynor, and the ex-regent, Miss DeVoy.

The attractive tea table was presided over by Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. J. D. Maley, Miss Congdon, Miss Steever and Mrs. Esch. Mrs. Murray T. Foltz, Mrs. A. E. Stilling, Miss Williams and Miss Dorothy Martin served the guests. A number of Daughters from widely separated parts of the United States graced the occasion by their presence, and some of the resident ladies and gentlemen came to celebrate the anniversary.

Among the guests was a descendant of the hero of the day.

During the afternoon the national airs and old melodies were rendered by the orchestra.

Miss Thorp, the former state regent, and other members of the chapter, moved about, greeting and introducing the guests. Social groups chatted as they were served the dainty refreshments, and thus were brought together representatives from many states to honor the national holiday, kept all over the land in remembrance of one who was "Soldier and statesman; farthest union."

Capt. C. A. Young and party, which included the captain's niece, Miss S. Cornelia Young, and her friend, Miss Clara Kermerle and Mrs. Elmer Oliver, returned Monday evening on the steamer Constitution from a week's trip to Palm Beach and intermediate points.

LARGEST ATTENDANCE EVER SEEN IN LOCAL HOME OF B.P.O. ELKS

MEMBERS AND VISITORS GATHER IN UNUSUAL NUMBERS TO GREET DIST. DEPUTY GRAND EXALTED RULER.

The Elks' home, Volusia and Palmetto avenues, was a point of attraction Tuesday evening for the members of the order from far and wide and the largest number of Elks ever gathered in the beautiful building assembled on that occasion to welcome the visiting district deputy grand exalted ruler, W. H. Northrup, of Pensacola, who was making an official inspection of the lodge.

Mr. Northrup made a brief, but pleasing address, in the course of which he said some very complimentary things of Daytona Lodge No. 1141, closing his remarks with a little story which pointed a moral couched in language that drew the laughter of his listeners. He stated that he was visiting Daytona for the first time and was totally unprepared to see a city of such size and beauty and congratulated the local lodge on the wonderful progress made during its short existence.

During the business session the matter of the proposed banquet in honor of the Brooklyn baseball team was given attention. The banquet is to be held next Monday evening at the Despland hotel and the committee, of which Michael Sholtz is chairman, requests that reservations be made not later than Saturday. All Elks, including visiting members of the order in the city, are asked to be present and assist in giving the ball tossers a fitting reception. The tickets will be $2.00 per plate.

The nominating committee reported the following nominations for lodge officers to be voted upon at the annual election.

Geo. F. Crouch, exalted ruler; J. L. Wallace, esteemed leading knight; M. Leidersdorf, esteemed lecturing knight; Lew Smith, esteemed loyal knight; F. J. Niver, treasurer; B. B. Baggett, secretary; Henry Pollitz, tiller; W. M. Hankins, trustee; W. M.

FLYING SQUADRON TO BE HERE SUNDAY

FIRST GROUP TO APPEAR AT THE NEW DAYTONA THEATRE NEXT SUNDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

Much interest is manifested on the part of the citizens of Daytona in the coming Flying Squadron of America that will visit the city on Sunday the 28th, and Monday and Tuesday, March 1st and 2nd.

The first group that will arrive will be composed of Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps;" Daniel A. Poling, of Christian Endeavor fame. These speakers will appear at the New Daytona theatre on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 and 8:00 o'clock in the evening. It has been arranged to have an overflow meeting at the First Congregational church at the same hour, with the same speakers. The second group will come on Monday, and will be composed of Dr. Ira Landrith, president of Ward-Belmont college, of Nashville, Tenn., and for many years a leader in the International Y. M. C. A.; Dr. Wilbur F. Sheridan, general secretary of the Epworth League of America, and Dr. Carolyn E. Giesel, Battle Creek, Mich.

With this group will come Frederick Butler, of New York, and formerly basso with the Alice Neilson Opera company, who was for five years the leading soloist with Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, world evangelist. Mrs. Butler will be the pianist for the musical numbers of the two services.

Hankins, delegate to national convention and J. D. Maley, alternate.

Following the regular meeting and initiation ceremonies, two candidates being admitted to membership, all repaired to the banquet hall where a social session and refreshments were enjoyed, the latter having been provided on this occasion by Mayor Henry T. Titus, who is a member of the lodge.

District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Northrup went from this city to St. Augustine this morning to make an official visit to the Ancient City lodge of Elks.

The problem of giving southeastern Italy an adequate water supply which has been studied since Roman times, is about to be solved by the construction of an aqueduct to cost about $25,000,000.

Hankins says:

Mineral Waters of all kinds are found in our stock. We make a specialty of furnishing these goods by the case or dozen for family use. Phone your order.

"DISCRIMINATION"

Written Especially for the Daily News
By DR. CHARLES FREDERIC GOSS
Author "Redemption of David Corson"

They were telling stories at the dinner table, the first of them being this: A wag was passing a milk station, over the door of which was the sign—

MILK.
FAMILIES FURNISHED.

He entered and astonished the proprietor by saying, "I'll take a wife and two children!"

The circumstance reminded some one else of the fact (?) that a sentimental fellow catching sight of a sign above a barber shop—

WHISKERS DYED HERE.
went 'round the corner to a florist's and bought a bunch of roses. Bringing them back, he handed them in at the door with the following explanation of his extraordinary behavior:

"I didn't know Mr. Whiskers, but I am sorry he is dead and wish that you would put these flowers on his coffin."

"Good example of the kind of discrimination that prevails in modern life," the Cynic muttered, under this breath.

Undoubtedly there is a frightful prevalence of maudlin sympathy. Our tributes to the dead are anything but critical, oftentimes. The vast development of Christian consideration for human frailty has led to an exaggerated tenderness. Hysterical women are almost as likely to carry fruit and flowers to a murderer in his cell, as to the victim of some colossal injustice. The weepy crowd will lay its floral wreaths as lavishly upon the bier of the scoundrel, who has robbed the widow and the orphan, as upon that of the hero of unselfish service of the community, of which he is a part.

It makes but little difference whether we knew Whiskers, nor what kind of a fellow he was; we are just as sorry that he is dead and wish as earnestly that his friends would lay our tributes on his grave.

Nothing is more ominous, in the life of a community or a nation, than the decay of the critical faculty. Let the people begin to applaud conduct, character and achievement for purely sentimental reasons and a fatal decline of morals will immediately set in. It is absolutely necessary for us to weep, to mourn, to laugh, to applaud with discrimination.

In every realm of life! In business, religion, art, society, politics—we needs must have the critic. Not everything in the world is good. No every dead man is worthy of being wept over. There are many coffins that ought to go to the grave without so much as a bud, to say nothing of flowers and wreaths.

Not until all classes of us are educated to the point where we can tell good pictures from bad ones, in our nickleodeons; good books from bad ones, in our public libraries; and good men and women from bad ones, in every walk of life.

Discrimination is the very essence of all true sympathy and appreciation.

FULGHAM STORE AT NEW SMYRNA ROBBED

The New Smyrna News this week says:

Gaining an entrance by breaking the lock on the front door robbers looted the Fulgham store at the corner of Orange and Canal streets last Thursday night and succeeded in carrying away between $300 and $400 worth of various kinds of merchandise, the plunder being of such a nature that an automobile or wagon must have been used for carting it away from the store.

The robbery was discovered when the store was opened for business Friday morning, and was immediately reported to the city authorities. A number of alleged clues have been followed since then, but up to this time no trace of the missing goods, or the persons who committed the robbery has been found.

Unmistakable marks on the door showed that a "jimmy" must have been used in prying on the door until the lock broke and allowed an entrance. Once the entrance was gained the thieves evidently took their time in making selections of the goods they wanted to carry away, and these must have been taken to a waiting automobile or wagon.

The loot taken included 21 suits of men's clothes, all of a dark color; a lot of shoes; seven suit cases, practically all of imitation leather; a lot of men's hats, men's shirts, underwear, neckties, collars, collar buttons, etc.; and about $80 in cash.

In closing the store Thursday night, Mrs. Fulgham forgot her handbag and left it lying on the counter. This contained about $25 in cash, and this money was taken by the robbers. The authorities are working on the

STEVENS SAYS WATROUS CAN
"DELIVER THE GOODS"

"The Town of Today: The City of Tomorrow" will be an illustrated lecture to be given by Richard B. Watrous, secretary of the American Civic association, at the New Daytona theatre, Friday evening, February 26th. Mr. Watrous spoke last year at Jacksonville, where he was heard with great interest. Mr. Watrous also addressed the horticultural society at Palatka last spring, and Rolland E. Stevens, who heard him there, says he can "deliver the goods." The Civic Association of America is greatly interested in city planning and Mr. Watrous is one of their best speakers.

Come to the lecture with questions on the subject, for Mr. Watrous requests a discussion after he has finished his lecture.

Limit of Laziness.
The laziest man in the world has been discovered in this town. He stood on Bay street yesterday and held a match out in his hand until a street car brushed by and struck it for him.

There are some frenzied financiers who appear to think that taking two baths a day and donning fresh linen ought to excuse them for being thieves.

WHEN SUNSHINE HITS THE TRENCHES

A graphic idea of what the British "Tommys" at the front had to endure for the past weeks of bad weather is presented in this picture, which shows some members of a famous British regiment taking advantage of a lull in the fighting and rain to renovate their trenches.

GUN FOR A BRITISH BATTLESHIP?

The gun made in America and shipped on the steamship Transylvania, about which there was much mystery, but which is supposed to be going to Belfast for one of England's new dreadnaughts.

At Last He Found It.

Irwin Cobb and "Boze" Bulger have had a monopoly of all the new darky stories for such a long time that it is a positive pleasure to be able to relate one they have never heard. This one must be credited to a retired officer whose bachelor apartments are presided over by a Virginia cook of the old school. "Cap'n," said she, while serving breakfast, "you all suttin' is lookin' good, raight now."

"Yes, Lucy," he replied. "You see, I'm drinking the right brand of whiskey, now."

Lucy chuckled. Then she said: "Well, Ah mus' say, cap'n yoh kep' raight on twell yoh foun' hit."—New York Letter to the Cincinnati Times-Star.

Real Warfare.

"Oh, dear, I wish this dreadful war in Europe would stop," said Mrs. Wasserby.

"I feel the same way," answered Mrs. Twobble. "My heart bleeds for the sufferers."

"Of course I'm sorry for everybody who is a victim of the war," said Mrs. Wasserby, "but what I was thinking about at the moment was the effect it's having on our children. My son, Tommy, is leader of the Belgian army in our block, and the last time they had a battle with a German army down the street he came home bruised from head to foot."

The Book Said So.

The geography class was in session. One small pupil astonished the class by stating that in a certain section of South America there were talking monkeys. When the teacher questioned the statement the youngster opened his geography and triumphantly read: "This region is inhabited by a species of monkey; properly speaking, apes."

Where Skirts Are Not Wanted.

No lady climbing who wears skirts or bloomers will be allowed to take a place on a rope, as these have been found a distinct source of danger to the party making the climb.

No Man Knows Another.

No man can justly censure or condemn another, because indeed no man truly knows another.

Aristocratic Glass Blowers.

Glass, of which we are threatened with a scarcity through the closing of Belgian sources of supply, used at one time to be made by a most aristocratic set of workmen. A French law passed under Louis IX allowed none but men of noble birth to set up glass-blowing establishments, or even to work therein. For many centuries this was the only industry which noblemen could engage in without losing caste. The art of glass making came to England originally from France, and in early days in this country the workmen styled themselves "gentlemen glass blowers."—London Tit-Bits.

Torpedo Not Ineffectual.

Inventors will have to find some new method of protection against submarine torpedoes. Under the direction of Commander John K. Robinson, U. S. N., commanding the naval torpedo station at Newport, R. I., a test was recently made which seems to prove that the torpedo net is no longer a secure defense against the torpedo. In the experiment a torpedo with a heavy charge of gunpowder was fired from the torpedo boat Morris while she was running 18 knots at a steel net which was moored to protect the target. The torpedo went through the net, struck the target and exploded.

A Striking Contrast.

In a certain county there are very near each other a dilapidated rural school house and a handsomely constructed jail, costing several thousand dollars. This jail has sanitary drinking fountains, shower baths, clean floors, plenty of light, good ventilation, and is otherwise attractive. Could a person from the district in which this school is located be blamed for preferring the jail?

Way to Test It.

A writer in the Tampa Tribune has been discussing the world-old question of whether prayers are ever answered. We suggest to the gentleman that he give prayer a thorough test and see how it works in his case.

Must Be a Pest.

Jinks—What sort of a chap is Johnson?

Pinks—Well, if you ever see two men in a corner, and one looks bored to death, the other is Johnson.—Puck.

That which attracts you to Central Park when you are in New York, Biltmore Estate when you are in Asheville, or Roland Park when you are in Baltimore, will some day attract you to Mountain Lake, in Polk County, Florida, where the Mountain Lake Corporation is developing a group of winter home sites and citrus fruit groves. The tract of land owned by the Corporation embraces two thousand five hundred acres and includes Iron Mountain, the highest point within sixty miles of the Atlantic coast between Key West and Northern New Jersey. Besides the ideal location, soil and climate for grapefruit and orange culture, to which it will be largely devoted, the property possesses unrivalled natural beauties which will be utilized by the landscape architect, an innovation in Florida development. The neighboring lakes and forests abound in fish and game.

While the Mountain Lake Corporation, through M. E. Gillett & Son, the well known nurserymen, will set out two thousand acres of orange and grapefruit trees in ten-acre groves, the remaining five hundred acres will be improved for winter homes with a golf course, country club, parks and roads. That this development will be of the highest character is assured in the engagement of Frederick Law Olmsted, of Brookline, Massachusetts, as the landscape architect. Mr. Olmsted inherited his love for landscape work, his father having been the foremost man of his day in that field. Among the elder Olmsted's best known achievements in landscaping were Central Park, New York, and Biltmore Estate. His son was associated with Mr. Olmsted in the work at Biltmore, and has to his own credit much that is notably good, including Roland Park, in Baltimore, and Forest Hills Gardens, Long Island.

Mountain Lake is in the heart of the leading citrus fruit section of Florida. It is but sixty miles distant from the Gulf of Mexico due east of Tampa and about as far from the Atlantic Ocean. Its exceptional elevation affords immunity from damaging cold, and as regards fertility of soil the tract is particularly fortunate. It is served by two railroads, the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line. The groves will be planted and cared for during a period of five years by M. E. Gillett & Son, who have made the finest groves in the state under the same plan at Lucerne Park. The price of the first fifty of the ten-acre groves will be $7,500 each, one-third cash and the balance in equal quarterly payments, beginning one year thereafter, without interest. After fifty groves have been sold the price will be increased to keep pace with enhancing values following the work of intensive development.

This Corporation commands respect because of the standing of the gentlemen who compose it. Among the leading stockholders are: FRANK S. WASHBURN, president American Cyanamid Company, Niagara Falls, Ont., president Alabama Light & Power Company, Ltd., New York and London. ELMER A. SPERRY, president Sperry Gyroscope Company, New York. HERBERT E. GOODMAN, vice-president and general manager Goodman Manufacturing Company, electrical mining machinery, Chicago, Ill. JAMES MITCHELL, president Alabama Traction, Light & Power Company, Ltd., New York and London. FREDERICK S. RUTH, president Mountain Lake Corporation, Lake Wales, Fla. M. E. GILLETT AND D. C. GILLETT, proprietors of Buckeye Nurseries and Gillett Lumber & Transportation Company, Tampa, Fla. E. C. STUART, vice-president State Bank of Bartow, Bartow, Florida, director Coronet Phosphate Company, Lakeland, Fla.

A preliminary booklet, now ready for distribution, gives the plans much more in detail. Copy will be mailed on application and further particulars supplied upon request.

ORMOND

ORMOND, Feb. 23.—The afternoon tea at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lindsay on the Peninsula, Tuesday, for the benefit of the Red Cross relief fund, was largely attended by guests of Hotel Ormond and Bretton Inn, as well as by many on the Peninsula and from the village. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, cut flowers, etc. The Ormond Hotel orchestra rendered a delightful musical program through the afternoon, and Mrs. Mills, the house guest of the hostess, sang most charmingly several contralto solos, responding to repeated encores with Scotch ballads which were enthusiastically received. Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Jr., Mrs. Boardman and Mrs. J. Blake White poured at the tables in the dining room, while Mrs. F. P. Osborne and Mrs. J. D. Price presided over the tables in the smaller reception room. Young ladies assisted Mrs. Lindsay and Miss Lindsay in the serving of delicious sandwiches and cakes. The guests were charming in their pretty afternoon frocks, and altogether the tea was a most delightful affair.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Sage, of Hartford and Ormond, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Mr. Edwin Valentine Mitchell, of Vermilion, South Dakota.

Miss Marion Cleveland, of Princeton, N. J., with her friend, Miss Ballard, of Philadelphia, have joined Prof. and Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Jr., at Bretton Inn. Tuesday evening was the occasion of a small but very delightful dinner given by Mrs. George H. Sage at her home on Palmetto avenue, to celebrate the birthday of her daughter, Margaret. Mrs. Sage also taking this occasion to announce to her Ormond friends her daughter's engagement. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Robbins, Mr. John W. Robbins, Miss Robbins, of Hartford; Miss Pomeroy, of Wernersville; Miss Reilly, of Ormond; and Mr. Bassett, of Enfield.

The regular meeting of the V. I. A. was held at the library rooms on Friday last, the president, Mrs. Macon Thornton, in the chair. After a short business session, the program of the day followed, Mrs. Marcia Jordan, of Portland, Maine, presenting George W. Cable's "Bonaventure," a tale of Creole life in Louisiana. Mrs. Jordan, always delightful in her readings, was especially charming in her rendering of "Bonaventure," her audience following closely and sympathetically her entire reading of about an hour. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. H. S. Shaw, Mrs. Urdora Watson and Mrs. Theodore Fluhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Moore, of Pontiac, Mich., arrived in Ormond on Wednesday, and will be the guests of Mrs. Ada C. Hinkley and Mrs. Hartwell Green during their stay here.

Mrs. Moore is a daughter of Mrs. Hinkley. Mr. Moore, who is planning to do some deep sea fishing, left on Saturday for the southern part of Florida and will visit various points on the coast, and possibly Cuba before returning to Ormond.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Coakley, of Buffalo, N. Y., are with their friends at Bretton Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milligan gave a dinner on Friday, February 19th, at their home on Palmetto avenue, the occasion being the celebration of Mr. Milligan's 80th birthday. Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Milligan's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bennett, of Rossville, Ill.; Miss Worth, of Toledo, Ohio; Mrs. Urdora Watson and Mrs. Anna Watson.

The annual Union church fair was held on Saturday from eleven to five o'clock in the parlors of the Ormond hotel. The tables were all most attractive and were presided over by the following ladies: Fancy work and utility, Mesdames Richmond and Daub, Miss Johnson; rugs and sofa pillows, Mesdames Shaw and Waldron; Candy, Miss Howe and Mrs. Isaac H. Sawyer, assisted by the Misses Knowlton, Weatherbee, Robbins, Pomeroy, Sage, Baker and Reilly; "The Lemon Lady," Mesdames Abbott, Fleming and Maxon; punch and fruits, Miss Lippincott, Mrs. Clements and Mrs. Blair; flowers, Mrs. Price, assisted by Mrs. Collins, Miss Pinkerton and Miss Simrall.

Afternoon tea was served from 4:30 to 5:30, in charge of Miss Lindsay, Mrs. J. Blake White assisting in pouring; several young ladies of the hotel and vicinity passing tea, delicious cakes, etc. It is not yet known the amount which the various tables netted, but all are unanimous in the opinion that the fair was a decided success socially, the committee feeling much indebted to the hotel management for the many courtesies extended.

As Ardeman Davis, of Huntsville, Mo., was nearing Ormond on Wednesday night, in a car containing his household effects and stock, enroute to Felsmere, Fla., a lantern suspended on a nail from the roof of the car fell. The hay and straw below ignited and the contents of the car were soon ablaze. Mr. Davis jumped to the ground and was unhurt, though the train had a speed of 30 miles an hour. His companion, however, remained in the car and the flames were finally subdued, though one of the horses and two boxes of chickens were badly burned. The car was sidetracked and left at Ormond.

Another successful "Skalp Whist" was held on Tuesday of last week under the management of Messrs. Carleton and Wardwell, the proceeds to go to the memorial library building fund.

How Could They Last.

Mr. Sampson is a very irascible man, and is in the habit of punishing his boys severely. Not long since he observed that one of his sons needed a new pair of trousers. He scolded the boy for wearing out his clothes so fast. "Pa, no trousers can last any time the way you hits," replied the son, reproachfully.

Man Should Fear Wife.

A man doesn't have to be a coward to be afraid of his wife. The man who isn't afraid of his wife when he has done something he shouldn't have done hasn't much of a wife.

Actor of Many Parts.

A Russian immigrant before the alien immigration board claimed to be a "play-actor," and said that he was also a compositor. He was vouched for by a cousin who is a furrier. Work was promised the applicant in a tailor's shop.—London Graphic.

ANOTHER BALL GAME SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY

Another of those very interesting exhibitions of the national game is scheduled to take place at Ormond on Friday, between the clerks of Hotel Clarendon and the Ormond. These games draw hundreds of people from the nearby resorts and serve to furnish entertainment for more tourists, with the exception of golf, than any other outdoor pastime. Busses will leave the beach in front of the Clarendon at 2:45 and it is hoped that there will be a large crowd of fans on hand Friday to accompany the boys to Ormond and assist in the "rooting."

A QUIET DAY AT THE BIG HOTEL YESTERDAY

It was a quiet day at the Clarendon yesterday, owing to the morning after the night before. Many of the guests who entered into the festivities of the Washington birthday ball preferred to sleep rather than try to be comfortable sitting about the lobby, while the rain drizzled down and made outdoor sports impossible.

TOOK LUNCHEON AT CLARENDON ON MONDAY

Mrs. Arthur Schwarz, of Trenton, N. J., was a luncheon guest at Hotel Clarendon yesterday. Many prominent persons from nearby resorts passed a portion of the day at the big hotel yesterday enjoying the music in the afternoon and dinner in the evening.

Words.
A well educated person who has been at high school and a university uses from 3,000 to 4,000 words, but the average individual can get along with 1,000. Shakespeare made use of 15,000, and in Milton's works 8,000 are used. By actual count the Hebrew Testament says all that it has to say with 5,642 words.—Popular Magazine.

GOLF ENTHUSIASTS WATCH WEATHER VANE

Despite the bad weather yesterday there were a large number of golf players who found their way to the links in the afternoon after it stopped raining. Many of these remained on the course until dusk, getting as much fun out of the game as possible, for fear of being kept within doors again today. It is a fact that there are more golf players at the Clarendon this season than ever before, and there has been less suitable weather for playing than followers of the game have been forced to experience in years.

Getting Results.
A colored woman was arguing and arguing with her husband, and when she had finished he said: "Dinah, yo' talk don' affect me no mo' than a flea bite." "Well," she answered, "Ise gawna keep yo' scratchin'."

Muskrat Skins.
The muskrat is the most important fur-bearing animal of North America. In one year alone 5,500,000 muskrat skins were put on the market, realizing to the trappers a sum approximately $1,700,000.

Just Like a Woman.
"Remember you are on your oath here," said a man to his wife at Lambeth police court. "Yes, and I hope that if I am telling a lie it will come true," was the reply.

She Was Right at That.
"Who can tell me what a cape is?" queried the teacher of the junior class in geography. "A cape," replied a bright little miss, "is a coat that hasn't any sleeves."

Should Do as He Teaches.
It's a waste of time for a father to attempt to train up his son in the way he should go if he doesn't keep in the middle of the same path himself.

NEW YORKER IS PASSENGER OF MISS RUTH LAW

Miss Ruth Bancroft Law had quite a busy day Monday, taking passengers for flights in her big Wright biplane. One of the local photographers went up, and it is expected that some beautiful bird's-eye views of Daytona Beach and Daytona will shortly be placed before the public. Pictures were snapped at altitudes varying from 1500 to 2000 feet.

Probably the most enthusiastic passenger yesterday was James J. Lewis, of Sayre, Pa. Mr. Lewis was up in the air about 12 minutes and greatly enjoyed the flight, it being his first experience in a Wright machine. He has studied aviation from a theoretical point and expects soon to enter a school of aviation in the north. Mr. Lewis has already taken a few lessons of Aviator Bruce, of the Curtis company, at Hammondsport, N. Y.

Mr. Lewis, in company with Edward Walter Buchanan, the young song writer of Connecticut, are guests at the Hotel Poinsettia. The former gentleman sails for New York on the Lenape from Jacksonville tomorrow, and the latter will remain in Daytona for several weeks.

Inconvenient.
"Summer has its inconveniences." "I don't get you." "I was just thinking of the vestless man who tries to carry a lead pencil, a fountain pen, his watch and his cigars in the top pocket of his coat."—Detroit Free Press.

Valuable Painting Found.
A genuine Rubens has been discovered in a small private dwelling at Strasburg. The painting, which depicts a scene from Herodotus, formed part of a legacy of Queen Christina of Sweden, and dates from between 1622 and 1624.

ARRIVALS OF A DAY AT HOTEL CLARENDON

Late arrivals at the big hotel by the sea include Mrs. Arthur Schwarz, Trenton, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Chamberlain, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dachtler and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baumgarden, Toledo, Ohio; Robt. Henderson, Montreal, Canada; J. N. Henderson, Vancouver, B. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Harris, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. William R. Innis, New York city; Alice M. Bushong and Beatrice E. Bushong, Brooklyn, N. Y.

SIGNOR ZANONI FURNISHED RARE ENTERTAINMENT

Signor Zanoni, of psychological fame, gave a large number of very interesting demonstrations in the music room at Hotel Clarendon last night. His revelations were, indeed, wonderful, and those who saw the exhibitions were greatly pleased with his style of entertainment.

RUTH LAW CARRIED TWO PASSENGERS YESTERDAY

Ruth Law carried two passengers in air flights yesterday in spite of the bad weather. James Lewis, of Sayre, Pa., and Miss Mary Muller were the two persons who braved the elements and accompanied the little aviator over that part of Seabreeze and Daytona Beach, which she has so often traveled. Mr. Lewis was highly pleased with the experience and was not backward in saying so. It was Miss Muller's first trip among the clouds, and she, too, was delighted with the trip.

THE WHITE DEATH

By WILLIAM CHANDLER

In 1850 Mile. Antoinette Garnier, named for the ill-fated queen of France who lost her head on the guillotine, was one of the most attractive of the younger girls of New Orleans. The Crescent City was in those days one of the gayest cities, if not the gayest, in the United States. Being a city of the French, it contained a number of emigrants of the revolution whereby the Bourbon kings lost the throne, and they were of the noblesse, some of them having the right to titles that they did not use. New Orleans socially was delightful, but more foreign than any other American city.

Edwin Wentworth, a young northerner from the state of Maryland, went to the Crescent City to spend a winter, attracted thither by the reports of the unique social life. Having letters to the "best" people, he was invited everywhere. He met Mile. Garnier, and a love affair ensued. It was arranged that when the spring came on they should be married and both go north to the groom's home.

In those days there was frequent intercourse between New Orleans and France. While desirable persons came out to the new world to make homes for themselves, occasionally one would come whose absence would have been preferable. Among these was Antoine Le Volsier, a duelist who had killed so many opponents that he had acquired the sobriquet of the White Death.

One evening at a cafe young Wentworth saw him, asked who he was and on being told remarked in a voice loud enough for Le Volsier to hear that the authorities of Louisiana should ship the fellow back to France. The result was a challenge. If Wentworth had come from Massachusetts or any northern state he might have declined it. But, hailing from a border state, in which dueling had not entirely died out, he felt compelled to fight. He was rash to have made the remark in the White Death's hearing and rash to go on the field with one who had fought twenty duels and killed ten men. Wentworth was entirely unskilled in the use of weapons, and there was no time to learn how to use them. The result was that he went out to meet his antagonist, and another murder was done.

Mile. Garnier was so crushed by the tragedy that for awhile her life seemed to be in danger, and as she recovered her strength she showed signs of mental derangement. The social world saw her no more, and so rapid are the changes in the world of fashion that in a few months her place there seemed to have been filled and she forgotten.

It was not long after Wentworth's murder that the cholera visited America, and New Orleans was not immune from its devastations. But it seemed that nothing could even temporarily obliterate the people's desire for amusement. A masked ball was given in a large hall, and, although it was not an affair to call out fashionable society, especially at such a time, many of the bon ton went there to divert themselves of the gloom surrounding them.

The contrast within and without the hall was a fearful one. Within was a dance of life, without a dance of death. But the death from without broke in among the merry-makers. A figure entered the hall dressed in white flowing robes, the mask as white as chalk, with great hollow eyes, a grinning mouth and rotten teeth. It advanced to one wearing a Louis XV. costume and stood staring at him. The merriment ceased, and all eyes were bent on the two figures. The Louis XV. figure took off his mask and displayed the features of Le Volsier.

The reason for his unmasking was apparent. He had seen himself confronted by one dressed as the White Death and was desirous to avenge the insult.

"Whoever you are who has offered this affront you shall pay for it," he said.

"I am the White Death."

"Meet me in an hour in the wood," replied Le Volsier, referring to a wood on the outskirts of the city where duels were fought.

ENTERTAINED AT CARDS AT NORTH BEACH STREET HOME

Mrs. E. P. Intemann entertained at 500 Saturday evening at her home, 231 North Beach street, eight tables playing.

The ladies' prizes were secured by Mrs. Henry Schmidt, Mrs. Conrad Stubenbord, Jr., and Mrs. Valentine Neuberger, and the gentlemen's prizes were won by John Kolle, Mrs. George Messman and George Moore.

At the conclusion of the cards a delicious luncheon was enjoyed, the Misses Helen and Adelaide Burry and Mrs. H. A. Intemann assisting the hostess in the serving.

The rooms were artistically decorated for the occasion with bamboo, into which was woven electrically lighted canary birds.

Accepted.

"You're a mighty poor talker, especially to the girls. How did you raise the nerve to propose to Miss Sweet?" "Oh, I didn't say much of anything to her. I handed her a solitaire ring and she slipped it on her left forefinger and said: 'All right; it fits!'"

UNDER-SEA PERILS ARE THEMSELVES IN DANGER; SOME ALREADY CAUGHT

LONDON, FEB. 24.—THE FIRST DECISIVE RESULT OF GERMANY'S SUBMARINE WARFARE IS THE ORDER OF THE ENGLISH ADMIRALTY RESTRICTING NAVIGATION IN THE IRISH SEA AND THE NORTH CHANNEL, WHERE THE HOME FLEET IS STATIONED. SHIPS MUST FOLLOW A CERTAIN ROUTE AND WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO MAKE PASSAGES AT NIGHT. THE IRISH SEA, NORTH SEA, AND THE ENGLISH CHANNEL ARE SWARMING WITH SUBMARINES, WHICH HAVE DAMAGED OR SUNK 12 SINCE THE WAR ZONE PROCLAMATION WENT INTO EFFECT A WEEK AGO.

A PARIS DISPATCH SAYS A SUBMARINE SUNK IN THE ENGLISH CHANNEL MONDAY NIGHT BY A FRENCH TORPEDO IS BELIEVED TO BE THE GERMAN U-16.

IT IS REPORTED TODAY THAT SEVERAL GERMAN SUBMARINES WERE EITHER SUNK OR BADLY DAMAGED BY WARSHIPS IN THE STRAIT OF DOVER.

ALL OF THE CREW OF THE AMERICAN STEAMSHIP CAIRO WERE SAVED WHEN THE SHIP WAS SUNK IN THE NORTH SEA BY A MINE.

THE BRITISH COLLIER BRANKSOMECHIN WAS TORPEDOED AND SUNK IN THE ENGLISH CHANNEL YESTERDAY.

PRESIDENT EBBETS GUILTY OF BAD BREACH OF NEUTRALITY

On the 14th of February the New York Tribune printed the following story about the president of the Brooklyn baseball club, which is to arrive here next Monday for a month's stay: "Charlie Ebbets has violated the spirit of President Wilson's neutrality order by assigning a man named O'Neill to a hotel called Schmidt's."

Papa Did a Good Job.

The Hypocrite.

The divine punishment of hypocrisy is fatigue. Those, in Shakespeare's fine simile, whose hearts are all as false as stairs of sand, must really have much of that exhausted sensation that comes of walking through sand when it is loose and deep. The hypocrite is that unluckiest of actors who is never out of a job.—G. K. Chesterton.

LADIES OF THE LOCAL W. C. T. U. MEET FRIDAY

The Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet Friday, February 26th, in the auditorium of the Congregational church at 2:30 in the afternoon. Mrs. Knox will have charge of the program. All interested in the W. C. T. U.'s work are requested to attend the meeting.

Simple Secret of Success.

Intermiss, more or less, soon or late housekeeping breaks up many homes, even as the parallel slackness and headlessness ruins many a commercial business. Attention to details, faithfulness in little, is the secret of success in every calling.

Always.

Civilization has always had more or less trouble with the man whose patriotism is slightly subordinate to his pocketbook.

What He Should Do.

There's not much usefulness to be expected from a man who thinks he is doing a great public service by digging up new questions instead of helping to answer the old ones.

STETSON BASEBALL TEAM DEFEATS FORT PIERCE TEAM

The Stetson university baseball team defeated Fort Pierce yesterday, on the latter's grounds, by a score of 2 to 0. Gross, who did the pitching for the college boys, let the Fort Pierce team down with one measly hit, which was secured by Chalker, who caught for the Jacksonville South Atlantic leaguers a part of last season.

Will Gardiner, the local boy who plays with the Stetson team, secured a couple of hits and scored one of the runs secured by his team. Stetson secured seven hits.

In Australia kangaroo farming is an important industry. The hides are valuable, and the tendons are the best known to surgeons for sewing up wounds, and especially for holding broken bones together, being much finer and tougher than catgut.

SOUTH AMERICAN WOULD LIKE TO LOCATE HERE

The appended letter to Board of Trade Secretary Benford Deacon from a former resident of the United States is sufficiently explanatory:

"Mercedes, Prov. Corrientes, Rep.
Argentina, Jan. 23, 1915.

"Dear Sir:

"Am just in receipt of your most kind attention; also the lovely post cards. You ask me if there is anything special I would like to know.
Yes; there are several things that if you can put me wise to I shall be most grateful to you.

"Am anxious to return to my country and live in a good climate, not too hot or too cold. Therefore, thought your locality might suit in that respect. What advice can you give me as regards a small poultry plant combined with a fruit grove. Do they raise the grapefruit near? Can I buy two or three acres planted or otherwise, close to town? How much an acre? What price do they usually charge for eggs? What insects do you have to contend with?

"Again thanking you for your kindness and hoping that I may have the pleasure of knowing you personally some time next year, and in the meantime if I can be of any assistance to you in this end of the world command me.

"Yours respectfully,

GOOD ROADS CO'MITTEE REPORTS TO CONGRESS

URGES NATIONAL AID IN HIGH-WAY BUILDING — $8,400,000,000
INVESTMENT WOULD YIELD
SIX PER CENT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Urging national participation in the improvment of public highways on a large scale, the report of the joint congress-sional committee on federal aid to good roads has been laid before congress by its chairman, former senator Jonathan Bourne.

The committee did not agree upon any particular method for government participation and no bill was recommended, but a vast amount of data has been placed before congress for its guidance in taking up the good roads question next session. The report says in part:

"Systematic efforts and co-operation of nation, states and counties will make American highways the best in the world, bring remote agricultural lands within hauling distance from the railroads, materially raise the value of farm property, enhance the margin of profit on farm products, vastly increase the average daily attendance at rural schools, raise the standard of rural education, make the motor truck an economical vehicle for American farmers, lighten the labors of American horses, save wear and tear on harness and wagons and add to the comfort and happiness of all rural residents."

Looking at the good roads propaganda from a business standpoint, the report of the joint committee estimates that the total quantity of commodities hauled over rural roads is 700,000,000 tons annually, costing an average of 21 cents per ton-mile or $1.89 for the average haul of nine miles.

The report argues that a system of first-class highways would reduce the cost to the extent of 13 cents per ton-mile. It is claimed that such a perfect system of highways is immediately practicable, but expresses the opinion that such an improvement as is now practicable would result in the saving of eight cents per ton-mile, or a total of $504,000,000 annually.

Viewing this saving as a dividend, the report says it would justify on a six per cent basis an investment of $8,400,000,000, which the committee believes is far more than would be necessary to place the roads in such a condition as to effect the saving indicated.

Other extracts from the report follow:

"We believe that when the United States government undertakes so important a project as that of federal aid to good roads, it should undertake it in a large way. To undertake it in a small way, means a continuation of the policy of patchwork and consequent waste of funds, with slight permanent results to show for the expenditure, and would within a few years subject congress to the criticism of having established what is commonly called a "pork barrel," from which the several states would receive annually a small contribution of funds distributed over a large mileage of roads without producing the high class of public roads which are so needed and desired.

"We believe that before congress adopts a plan the whole subject should be so thoroughly studied that a plan decided upon may be enacted into law with confidence that it will remain practically unchanged on the statute books for many years as a credit to the congress which enacted it.

"Congress should make careful provision for such administration of the federal highway participating as will protect the several states in their right to control their local highway affairs and guard against dictatorship from a federal bureau in Washington."

As a means of guarding against dictatorship from Washington the report suggests that the membership of the National Highway commission should include members of the senate and house of representatives who shall constitute a majority of the commission, thus insuring the states an appeal to congress from any arbitrary and unsatisfactory rulings of the bureau head, who would be a minority member of the commission.

The report includes data concerning the road systems of other countries, of the several states, statistics bearing upon various plans of appointment of federal contribution toward good roads, figures covering good road expenditures, bond issues, etc., a summary of the character and condition of the highways over which the rural mails are carried and a resume of all pending good roads legislation with a complete bibliography of all good roads literature.

MICHIGAN PARTY ENJOY THREE-DAYS OUTING

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Mortimer, Dr. and Mrs. M. V. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Olds and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Walters, of Lansing, Mich., had a delightful trip in the Mortimer and Olds cars to Orlando, Mt. Dora, Eustis and Umatilla. They left Friday morning and returned home Sunday night. They spent Friday night in Orlando, and Saturday night in Umatilla, in the latter city meeting a bunch of Lansing, Mich. friends, and had a very pleasant reunion, though in fact the outing was much enjoyed throughout. Mrs. Walters is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Olds, and they are here on a visit with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pease, of Springfield, Mass., who made the trip by automobile from their home town to Daytona Beach, arrived here after a lengthy trip of three weeks enroute, and are visiting Capt. and Mrs. Cobb in their winter home on Orange street. They enjoyed the journey in spite of rainy weather and minor discomforts, and will return home in their car.

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB TO BE ATTRACTION

The attraction this evening at the New Daytona theater will be the Florida State University Glee club. This musical organization, which is appearing here for the first time, should receive a hearty reception both because of its own worth in the musical line and because of the educational institution which it represents. A good glee club offers a musical treat and the university club will afford an evening of pleasure to all who hear it this evening.

LET'S GET ACQUAINTED

BEFORE YOU conclude a deal for acreage on the Peninsula, it will pay you to see me. I have several tracts from Ocean to River south of Daytona Beach, from ten acres up to one hundred; also several hundred acres between Seabreeze and Ormond, all at attractive prices. I also offer houses, lots, in any one of the three towns, some for less money, than the owners quote. Should you be interested in an orange grove, farm, or undeveloped lands, from five thousand up to one hundred thousand acres at prices from Five Dollars up to Twelve Dollars per acre, for development purposes, I've got that.

In fact I have some bargains to offer, which it will take a personal interview, to explain.

I have a new coquina rock residence, on the Ocean front, near the Automobile Club house, which some one ought to pick up at once—it's a real beauty, and can be bought right.

For Florida: Fair today and Thursday; cooler in the peninsula section tonight. Moderate west and northwest winds.

The regular meeting of the Palmetto club Thursday afternoon will be in charge of the civic department. Rossard B. Watrous will give an address on garden cities, those charming towns that have been planned with thought of utility and beauty. When a Lie Is Not a Lie.
When the bird girl says her mistress is not at home, while she is upstairs with a novel, what your lady friend says she is a bit hungry and forthwith excuses her worth of food and drink when you say to a panhandling friend, "Sorry, old top, but I haven't a centaboot," and there is a large, yellow bill in your vest pocket. These are lies; they are efforts to spare people's feelings; they are examples of altruism over the brutality of conscience.—Exchange.

No Happiness in Idleness.
Idleness is one of the greatest enemies of character. As some one has said, "The devil tempts other men but idle men tempt the devil." Do not envy the idle man, whom ever you may envy. You may have too much to do and too many things to think about, still, do not envy the man who has not enough to think about, and has to fall back upon himself. The passage of human nature break loose in idleness and wander over forbidden places seeking what they can devour.—St. James Stalker.

Where Hat Styles Originate.
The attendant led the visitor into the violent ward. "For Heaven's sake!" exclaimed the stranger, "what are those lunatics doing with that straw, leaves, flowers, feathers and ribbons?" "Our millinery," the attendant explained, "this is where the hat styles originate."

What He Did.
"After earning a certain amount," propounded Mr. Birchard, the banker, "I spent two-thirds of it and lost the sixth of the balance, winning sixths of $3. What did I have?" "About eight drinks, I judge," answered the boy at the foot of the class.—Newville Courier-Journal.

A Real Peach.
Our idea of a peach is the wife of a man who thinks she is prettier than the cashier at his favorite restaurant.—Galveston News.
